

Studley Parish Council Policy
TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT POLICY FOR EMPLOYEES and COUNCILLORS
Status	Adopted
Date approved	27 January 2022
Date of next review	January 2024

Overview

As the first tier of local government local councils are uniquely placed to make a major contribution to localism and play a significant part in democracy.

The council is committed to offering its employees and councillors the highest standard of training. Funds are therefore allocated to a training budget each year to enable councillors and staff to discharge their duties as effectively as possible and achieve the objectives and aims of the council. Council will pay for all training and will pay any associated out of pocket expenses.

Engaging in learning, training and development is essential in gaining experience and enabling all staff and councillors to understand their role and responsibilities to better enable them to contribute fully to the democratic process.

The council is committed to networking with other councils as an effective means of sharing information and linking in with each other's training events if applicable.

The council is committed to being a member of:

- WALC (Warwickshire & West Midlands Association of Local Councils)
- ICCM (the Institute of Cemetery and Crematorium Management)

Membership of SLCC (the Society of Local Council Clerks) for the clerk and administration staff will be supported by the council.

These organisations offer training and are also an invaluable source of advice and support.

For any specialist training needs the clerk will source suitably qualified professional training companies in the most cost effective way.

Employees and councillors will be entitled to:-

- Equality of opportunity in all aspects of their development.
- An induction session into their own roles as well as those of the council.
- An understanding of the direction and objectives of the council.
- An understanding of the contribution that is expected of them.
- Training may include attendance at conferences, training courses, briefings and seminars.

Training for employees

All employees will:-

- Be given access to all council policies and procedures and other information deemed relevant.
- A tour of the parish particularly the areas owned or managed by the council.
- Have access to a library of relevant publications (and website addresses) offering information on all aspects of local government. This will include the provision of a copy of Local Council Administration by Charles Arnold Baker and other relevant publications.

Training needs for the clerk will be identified by the Staffing committee as follows:-

- Through the completion of the annual review/appraisal.
- Should new legislation or equipment be introduced during the year then appropriate training will be given.
- The clerk is also encouraged to make suggestions for training that is deemed appropriate and/or necessary to carry out their role.

Training needs for administration and support staff will be identified by the clerk as the line manager as follows:-

- Through the completion of the annual review/appraisal.
- Should new legislation or equipment be introduced during the year then appropriate training will be given.
- Clerk may also make suggestions for specific training needs deemed appropriate.
- All staff are encouraged to identify any specific training they feel is appropriate to carry out their role more effectively.

Training for councillors

Essential training for councillors will be identified as follows:-

- ALL new members (elected or co-opted) will be expected to undertake an induction meeting with the clerk and will be provided with a "Welcome" pack containing relevant council documents.
- A tour of the parish particularly the areas owned or managed by the council.
- All councillors will be expected to attend WALC "Being a better councillor" training or equivalent within six months of joining council in line with standing orders.
- A new chairman will be expected to undertake appropriate training in chairmanship skills.
- All members will be encouraged to carry out training in planning.

Impact and evaluation of training

A well trained clerk, support staff and councillors will see the benefit of training through:-

- Well chaired council meetings
- Professional responses to planning applications
- Policies and reports of a high standard
- Projects well managed
- Council finances well managed
- Professional conduct of all staff members and councillors
- Recognition through meeting national standards.

The council will evaluate and measure the effectiveness of all training attended. Councillors and employees will provide feedback on the value and effectiveness of the training they undertake and to share information gained. Staff members will report back to the clerk. Councillors will give a report at the next council meeting following the training.

The clerk will maintain a record of any training undertaken by employees and councillors.
